Summary

A busy, productive month. Everything was updated and tested, backups ran every day, and a security patch for one plugin was applied the same day it came out.

With this month's Growth Support hours we launched the Holiday Pre-Orders page, published two blog posts, and made the homepage noticeably faster on phones. The site now passes Google's Core Web Vitals, which helps both visitors and search rankings.

Coming up next month

Add a gift-card page before the holidays and keep improving mobile speed on the menu pages.
